PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

January 4, 2005

Tacoma, WA - The Hip-Hop and Bboy community will gather in Tacoma, Washington for "Just a Jamraiser: a Bboy Jam" on January 15, 2005 to raise money to support the Disaster Relief efforts for the Earthquake and Tsunami Victims in the Indian Ocean. Hosted by Puget Sound Christian Center, the event sponsored by Fab5 and Bboyworld.com will bring together hundreds of local break dancers, disc jockeys and graffiti artists. The event is open to the public and there is a $5 admission charge or $3 if you bring a can of food. Music for the evening will be provided by local disc jockeys DJ Reign and Zac Hendrix of Insult 2 Injury. All of the proceeds will be donated to World Vision's Disaster Relief fund.

Organized by Fab5, the event is a time for the hip-hop community to come together to dance and hang out with each other while discussing the happenings of the tragedy in an open environment. "Young people today are just as affected by this tragedy as those of the wiser generation, this is a tragedy that transcends all comprehension" says Mikael Sonnenberg, the Creative Director of Fab5. "Our goal is to cultivate a response to this disaster. With this event we hope to motivate and inspire the hip-hop community to be prepared for future events, knowing that this is not the last time we will have to deal with events of this magnitude," Sonnenberg continues. "We have to support the worldwide community in the ways we know how."

The Fab5 is an initiative of the Northwest Leadership Foundation with its mission to enhance the leadership and academic skill of the youth and young adults in Pierce County, as well as, broaden Hip-Hop as a positive medium of expression. Fab5 provides youth in Tacoma and Pierce County with safe, drug and alcohol free events and education programs. The organization's goal is to provide conduits of learning for at-risk youth and young adults in the community.
